

Letter X: look, trace and try

Start with a finger, then a pencil if wanted. These models are for recognition and tracing; follow your school's formation guidance.

Look at both forms.

Letter X: a looking game

The small numbers help the grown-up check answers. They are not the letters you are looking for.

Find every X and x. Point, circle or color your choices.

1 T	2 b	3 I	4 x	5 W	6 e
7 L	8 s	9 X	10 h	11 O	12 v
13 x	14 k	15 R	16 z	17 G	18 X
19 U	20 c	21 J	22 q	23 x	24 X

Keep the model nearby if helpful. Cover part of the grid to make a smaller hunt. A grown-up can check the numbered cells on page 3.

Letter X: grown-up guide and game

Choose a small shared activity. No perfect handwriting, completed worksheet or independent reading is expected.

Make and play

Cross two wide paper strips to make X. Draw a box nearby and write its label, then point to the x at the end. Make a smaller x and use it to mark a pretend treasure spot on a simple map.

Notice a difference

Compare X with K: K has a straight upright as well as its sloping arms. Compare X with a plus sign and notice how the strokes are angled. A mark used as a symbol can look like a letter without being part of a word.

Example words

box, fox, six. Look for x at the end of each word. These examples do not begin with x. These are letter examples; follow school guidance when teaching sounds.

Letter-hunt answers

4 (x), 9 (X), 13 (x), 18 (X), 23 (x), 24 (X). There are six matching cells: three capitals and three lowercase letters.

Let the child point, talk or direct your hand. Stop for a break whenever needed. An adult prepares paper pieces; keep scraps away from children who mouth objects.
